Empowering Clients with Exceptional Property Management Solutions

As a California REALTOR® since 2005, Barbara has dedicated her career to serving her clients with a commitment to excellence. Her industry experience in residential and commercial sales, leasing and property management is reflected in the professional service she provides her sellers, buyers and investors.

Barbara's advanced REALTOR® designations are essential to keep pace in the competitive real estate market.

As an Accredited Buyer's Representative (ABR), Barbara has an industry edge in promoting her client's best interest while focusing on their homeownership goals.

Receiving her GREEN designation, she stays current with consumer demand for knowledge on energy efficiency and sustainability in various areas of real estate.

Barbara respects the honor of military service and is loyal to those that have served. She is proud to represent her military clients as a National Association of Realtors Military Relocation Professional (MRP).

Barbara is grateful to contribute to AARE Generous Giving Program. The Generous Giving Program has generated thousands of donation dollars to non-profit organizations and charities. In addition to serving clients throughout California, Barbara is partnered with top agents across the United States ready to give back in support of a favorite charity. aare.com/generosity

With a proven reputation and a loyal client base Barbara Marsh is your trusted REALTOR® to have on your side in your next real estate transaction.
